SUMMARY

I am an engaged and curious software developer with experience in designing web and backend systems. I have experience in Java, React, TypeScript, Next.js, and Tailwind CSS, along with practical knowledge of SCRUM. While I am skilled in these technologies, I am highly motivated to learn and grow further in my field.

EXPERIENCE

Software Developer, Project-Based

Nybilpris

📅 03/2025 - 04/2025 📍 Odense

Worked at a company where I undertook the following tasks:
- Developed a car management system using Next.js and TypeScript
- Implemented CRUD operations for car models and brands
- Built reusable React components
- Managed API and data retrieval from a backend
- Implemented a search feature for data filtering
- Integrated NextAuth with Google provider

Software Developer, Intern

Rotoy

📅 02/2024 - 07/2024 📍 Odense

Contributed to the software development of the company's products:
- Developed a web-based gaming platform where users could navigate stories and answer questions.
- Utilized Next.js, TypeScript, MySQL, and Tailwind CSS to enhance platform functionality and user experience.
- Collaborated with my team to develop the company's landing page: https://www.rotoy.dk/da
- Actively participated in SCRUM processes and delivered solutions iteratively in close collaboration with the team.
